Greatness of This Temple

This temple is revered for its unique combination of deities representing Ganapathi (remover of obstacles), Shankaranarayana (harmony of Shiva and Vishnu), and Durgamba (the protective mother goddess).

It's especially known for its peaceful, scenic riverside setting, making it a spot for spiritual solace and nature lovers.

It holds historical importance as part of ancient Nandapura and attracts devotees seeking blessings for prosperity, protection, and obstacle removal.

Legends and History

Nandavara (anciently Nandapura or Nandavara) was the capital of the Nanda Dynasty, which ruled the region for centuries before declining around the 15th century.

The name derives from "Nanda" + "vara/pura."

Historical accounts mention palaces and temples here; the area saw rule by Banga kings (e.g., Laxmappa Bangaraja in the 15th century) and conflicts with neighboring rulers.

The temple itself has been renovated in modern times (including the Sri Siddhi Vinayaka section) and is equipped for community activities.

Legends tie it to ancient royal patronage and divine manifestations, with the site's antiquity linked to pre-medieval times in Tulu Nadu.

Architecture of the Temple

Traditional South Indian/Kerala-influenced style typical of coastal Karnataka temples, with simple yet elegant structures.

The complex includes separate shrines in a serene compound overlooking the Netravati River, emphasizing natural integration rather than grand gopurams. It has been restored/renovated for better facilities while preserving heritage.

Deities

Main/Primary: Lord Vinayaka (Ganesha/Siddhi Vinayaka), Lord Shankaranarayana (combined form of Shiva and Vishnu), Goddess Durgamba.

This unique triad symbolizes unity, protection, and auspicious beginnings.

Sub-deities

Other shrines in the vicinity/complex include Sri Veerabhadra and Sri Veera Maruti (Hanuman), as part of the historical Nandavara sites.

Daily Rituals and Poojas

Standard timings: Approximately 6:00 AM – 12:30 PM and 4:30 PM – 7:30 PM (based on available info; confirm locally as timings may vary seasonally).

Daily poojas include Nitya Naivedya, archana, and aartis typical for Ganesha, Shiva-Vishnu, and Durga forms.

Special Poojas and Rituals

Special sevas for Ganesh Chaturthi, Navaratri (for Durgamba), and other festivals.

Sankashti Chaturthi for Vinayaka and related observances are prominent.

Festivals

- Ganesh Chaturthi (major celebrations for Vinayaka).
- Navaratri/Dussehra (for Durgamba).
- Other Hindu festivals like Shivaratri, etc., observed with special poojas.

Facilities for Devotees

Basic facilities available (as it's renovated with social welfare focus).

Accommodation may be limited on-site; pilgrims often stay in nearby Bantwal or Mangalore.

Annadana (free meals) or basic amenities during festivals.

Donation Info and Bank Account

No specific public bank account details are widely published online (common for smaller temples to handle donations in-person or via trust).

Contact the temple directly via visit or Facebook for annadana, renovation, or seva contributions. Donations are typically accepted for maintenance and festivals.

This is a deeply significant and ancient pilgrimage site, often referred to as the "Kashi of the South" by locals.

Here is a quick breakdown of what makes this temple special:

The Deities

The temple is unique because it houses three primary deities in one complex, representing a beautiful harmony of different traditions:

* Sri Vinayaka (Ganesha): The remover of obstacles.
* Sri Shankaranarayana: A combined form of Shiva and Vishnu, symbolizing unity.
* Sri Durgamba: The powerful goddess and protector.

Key Highlights

* Historical Significance: The temple has a history dating back several centuries. It was historically associated with the Nandavara Kings, who were prominent rulers in the region.

* Location: It is nestled on the banks of the Netravathi River, providing a serene and spiritual atmosphere for devotees.

* Architectural Style: It reflects the traditional coastal Karnataka (Tulu Nadu) temple architecture, characterized by sloping roofs and intricate wood/stone carvings.

* Festivals: The temple comes alive during Ganesha Chaturthi, Navaratri, and the annual Jatrotsava (temple fair), drawing thousands of devotees from across Dakshina Kannada.

Visitor Information

* Nearest Town: Bantwal (approx. 5–6 km away).
* Nearest City: Mangalore (approx. 25–30 km away).
* Best Time to Visit: Early mornings or during the evening "Deepotsava" for a truly peaceful experience.

> Note: If you are planning a visit, the temple usually offers Annadaana (holy meals) to devotees during the afternoon. It's a wonderful way to experience the local culture and hospitality.

While the Sri Vinayaka Shankaranarayana Durgamba Temple in Nandavara is a prominent pilgrimage center, it is a traditional regional temple that doesn't always publish a fixed "price list" online.

However, based on the practices of major temples in the Dakshina Kannada region (Tulu Nadu), here is the information regarding the sevas, poojas, and general timings.

General Temple Timings

* Morning: 6:00 AM – 1:00 PM
* Evening: 4:30 PM – 7:30 PM

* Annadaana (Free Lunch): Typically served between 12:30 PM and 1:30 PM.

Common Daily Sevas & Estimated Charges
Most temples in this region follow a standard slab for daily offerings. Note: These prices are estimates based on local temple standards and may vary slightly.

Seva Name	Description	Estimated Charge (INR)

Vahana Pooja	Blessing of vehicles (Two-wheelers/ Four-wheelers).	₹100 - ₹300

Special Sevas (By Deity)

Because the temple houses three main deities, devotees often perform specific sevas for each:

* For Sri Vinayaka (Ganesha):
  * Ganahoma: A fire ritual for removing obstacles. This is one of the most popular sevas here. (Estimated: ₹500 - ₹1,500 depending on the scale).
  * Appa Seva: Offering of special sweet appams.

* For Sri Shankaranarayana:
  * Rudrabhisheka: Special abhisheka for health and prosperity.

* For Sri Durgamba:
  * Chandika Homa: A major ritual performed during festivals or by special request (Costs several thousands and usually requires prior booking).
  * Kumkumarchana: Offering of vermillion to the Goddess.

Important Festivals & Occasions

* Sankashtahara Chaturthi: Special Ganahomas are performed.

* Annual Jathre (Temple Fair): Usually held in the winter/spring months; this is when major Rathotsavas (Chariot festivals) occur.

* Navaratri: Special Alankaras and poojas for Goddess Durgamba.

How to Book

For exact current prices and to book major sevas like Ganahoma or Chandika Homa, it is recommended to contact the temple office directly or visit in person, as these often require the purchase of specific materials (Samanu).

* Contact Number: Based on local listings, you can try reaching them at 08255-280091.

* Location: Nandavara is about 2 km from Panemangalore/Marnabailu.

Tip: If you are visiting on a Friday or Tuesday (days sacred to the Goddess) or a Sunday, expect more crowds and arrive early to book your seva at the counter.
